Salda Contracting Company

COMPANY PROFILE

Where We Build Your Visions

WHO? WE ARE?

Salda Contracting Company is primarily a Manpower Supply Company originating in Bangladesh, but recently we have extended our establishment into the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. Our expertise also extends to the scraps industry where we work with clients of all industries with all types of materials. The company believes in the philosophy, "Progress is achieved through quality of work" and takes a results-oriented approach harmonized with efficient time management. Keeping up with the latest practices in construction in the respective countries, Salda has contributed to some major pioneering advancements. Some of them are listed below.

Bangladesh

Bangladesh has recently undergone the most significant infrastructure advancements in its history, and Salda has been a significant contributor. The Padma Bridge, a two-level road-rail bridge spanning 6.15 km, is the largest of its kind in the country where Salda is proud to be a major contributor. With one of the highest volumes of traffic flow possibly in the world, it stands as a marvel of construction and a testament to our quality of work. The company's dedicated work is also allocated to the construction of the first and only nuclear power plant, Rooppur Nuclear Power Plant, which stands as a tipping point in the advancement of the country's energy infrastructure. In the civil sector, our work extends to the construction of residential and luxury apartment buildings with SEL, a renowned nationwide real estate company.

Kingdom of Saudi Arabia

Prior to our recent establishment in Saudi Arabia, our contractors have contributed to some of the recent major projects in the country that align with Vision 2030. Most notably, our contractors have made major strides in the SPARK Project in collaboration with China Railway Construction Company. This megaproject aims at providing different services and products including exploration, production, refining, petrochemicals, conventional power, water production and treatment, and drilling.

Salda stand for honesty, trust, efficiency, quality and commitment. The company's unparalleled dedication stems from its drive towards customer satisfaction through its services and communication. These are the driving forces behind Salda's excellence as a manpower supplier.

Message from CHAIRMAN

Considering the acceleration of development in various fields, we continue to strive to achieve what requires us to bring our company to higher degrees of sophistication and prosperity and to continue training renewable competencies to integrate with our expertise. In addition to our unique and high-precision technology, we ensure a solid base of stability over generations and put at the top of our strategy to participate in achieving the goals of Saudi Arabia's Vision 2030 by mixing national cadres with international ones to reach this.

CEO Mr.Farid Ahmed

Our employees are our biggest asset. Leveraging their collective talent allows us to undertake complex projects even in the harshest of operating environments. As a company that operates across the length and breadth of GCC and overseas, we believe our responsibilities go beyond our clients, to the larger community that we operate in.
